October, it is the month of many things or many occasions. It is the month when trees show the beauty that God has given to them. The trees are no longer the shades of just one color, but they reflect many shades of various colors going from the usual green to red, brown, yellow, orange, gold, and even a purple in some cases. How majestic the mountains become as they are covered with vibrant and living color.

It is also the month of discovery, as children have been taught about the discovery of America and Christopher Columbus's part in that discovery. In fact many people will get the day off in remembrance of the great explorer's work.

It is also the month most important to baseball fanatics (fans for short) because it heralds the time of playoffs and the World Series. Yes, the month is important to those who love the game that is played for 9 innings each day throughout the whole summer culminating in a winner takes all mini season. My brother used to joke about the relative unimportance of the games and would call the games the "World Serious." The truth is October is a month when we should perhaps take a look at our world in a serious way.

Almost 500 years ago a young monk took a serious look at his world. He realized that everything in Germany was not exactly kosher. It made him think and rethink his position on things as a Roman Catholic theologian. "Surely there is something wrong with the system," he thought. And there was.

Almost 500 years ago the young monk wanted answers to questions about God that bothered him and that plagued his mind. The questions were not only personal but would have bearing on his whole world and on the world for centuries to come. I am talking about a real "world serious." I am talking about a time when the world was about to go through a major overhaul, a undertaking that would reform not only the theological position of the day, but so many other generally held positions in a number of disciplines.

Luther was not the first to consider his world in a serious manner. Many had come before him and others would follow after him. Yet Luther brought the serious nature of Salvation and Grace to the table in a way that it was never brought to the table before. And although the month goes by with so many people focused upon the surrounding beauty of the land, or a remembrance of America's discovery shortly before Luther's own discovery in the theological landscape, or of a fixation upon a sphere, a bat, several bases and a ball park, perhaps it is time to reflect upon a real "world serious" that is to consider something that has had an impact upon our world and culture for so many centuries. Consider the Reformation in this month of October. Rent a DVD, read a book, Google the word on your computer and take some time to consider the miracle of that time. The year was 1517. The setting was a church in Wittenberg. The happening was a nailing upon a door. The world as peasants and kings, princes and commoners knew it then would never be the same. It was an amazing time and a very serious time. So take some time and commit to learning just one thing about it. It may do you a world of good and I am serious.

Peace to you,
 Pastor Gustafson

NEWS FROM THE PRESIDENT AND THE CHURCH COUNCIL

At our September Council and Voters Assembly meetings, we heard reports from our Officers and Deacons about ministry for the past summer months and plans for the next few months. The Voters Assembly approved a motion to have the Columbarium Committee present an informational meeting for the congregation to review the Committee's recommendations for the construction of a columbarium and proposed Bylaws to govern its operation. We are planning to schedule an informational meeting on Sunday, October 18th following the second worship service; formal notices of the meeting will be provided.

I am pleased to give another follow-up to the letter that Jeff Mann and I sent to the congregation in June about our 2015 Mission Plan and our $25,000 challenge. Our congregation's offerings during July through September 2015, compared with the same period in 2014, were approximately $7,000, or 11% more! In the words of a familiar doxology, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow"! The challenge, now at $18,000 through the end of the year, still remains, so I encourage everyone to continue to pray and joyfully help us meet our Mission Plan as your blessings enable you.

The challenge, now at $18,000 through the end of the year, still remains, so I encourage everyone to continue to pray and joyfully help us meet our Mission Plan as your blessings enable you.

On the subject of finances, the Council and Voters Assembly received a draft Mission Plan for 2016 from our Finance Committee; the Committee will continue its work toward a final version over the next several weeks and expects to present a final proposed Mission Plan in November to the Voters.

Our Church Council will meet again on Tuesday, October 20th at 7:00pm and our next Voters' Assembly meeting will be on Monday November 16th at 7:00pm.

See you in church!

NEWS FROM OUR EVANGELISM DEACON...

I would like to thank everyone who helped to man the booth at the Fall Festival. This was an important outreach for our congregation into our community. Cheshire Lutheran was one of only 2 churches to have a presence at this event. We offered to say a prayer for anyone who requested one. Many people stopped by to talk to one of our people or Pastor Gustafson. I think people noticed our booth and they could see that we care about our town. We gave away many pens, magnets, and helium balloons for the Little Cherubs. There seemed to be many families interested in our pre-school program. I feel it's important to stay involved in this outreach and I would like any ideas for next year.

John Balash Evangelism Deacon

Our Sincere Appreciation

- ✦ Many thanks to the "Thursday Afternoon Ladies" for assembling the September Heavenly Herald! We can't do it without your support, you are the BEST!
- ✦ Thanks to all who helped plan, work and help out for the Sunday School Rally Day. The kids had a great time!
- ✦ Always we want to remember to thank all the folk that help out around the church, especially the Senior men! So much work needs to get done and does get done due to the hard work and dedication of so many unsung heroes! We are blessed and thank you from the bottom of our hearts!
- ✦ Many thanks to Don and Diane Drust for the use of their power washer that was used to clean the sidewalks around the church.

- 6:30 PM – Youth Choir
- 7:15 PM – Adult Bell Choir
- 8:00 PM – Parish Choir

NEWS FROM OUR STEWARDSHIP DEACON...

Summer has come and gone. As the third quarter ends, we will have an opportunity to see where we stand in relation to the Mission Plan but I appreciate the response from everyone to President Sherman's message and letter back in June.

As we head into Fall, this is when we initiate the preparations which provide us, as a congregation, the opportunity to continue God's plan here at CLC and in the community. One such opportunity comes in the form of our Mission Plan for 2016. The Finance Committee is working on a final draft.

The declared support of our members and friends through the submission of pledge cards is the foundation of the support and funding for the many worldwide and local ministries and our worship here at CLC. The official pledge drive will be starting shortly but I ask and encourage you to begin to reflect upon your financial stewardship commitment. If you have not pledged in the past, please consider making a pledge, no matter the amount, in keeping with your ability to help support God's work.

Just as importantly, please consider giving your time and talent. This is an invitation to get involved in any of the organizations and committees at CLC. This includes getting involved in the Voters' Assembly or Church Council by either attending meetings or even, possibly, holding an office. Come attend a meeting and see for yourself the effort and dedication, along with the joy and reward, which goes into the operation of CLC. Stewardship is not just financial.

I appreciate all of the support the congregation has given to CLC this year in terms of time, talent, and treasure. It has helped to sustain the church and make it a wonderful place for us all to find fellowship and God's Love.

P.S. I would love to hear suggestions from members as to fundraisers and other methods to raise funds while also trying to increase our visibility within the community.

Sincerely,

David Veleber
Stewardship Deacon

NEWS FROM OUR LITTLE CHERUBS...

Hello Friends of Cheshire Lutheran Church.

To start, I want to share with you how much of a blessing it is that God has sent Martha to our Classroom at Little Cherubs Christian Preschool. She is absolutely amazing...

Fall is here and we will be busy with assignments in art, science, social studies etc. focusing on fall activities. Apple Art, Johnny Apple Seed, Painting Pumpkins, Making Pumpkin Seeds, Homemade Apple Pie and much, much more. The trail is cleaned up so we will be going on walks focusing on different elements. We are using our Green House which is located opposite our play yard. Planting bulbs, watching them grow and planting them in the Spring.

Our Classroom has 8 children so far this year and we are combining 3's and 4's Monday, Wednesday and Fridays. It is working out great. We are seeing the 3 year olds striving to accomplish the tasks of the 4's. We have a wonderful class this year. Boys and Girls. The girls are not over running the class.

Both Martha and I wish you a fantastic October. Remember us in your prayers to send us more children to help Cherubs grow to its full potential.

Love to All,

Joann and Martha

We would like to now donate these items to the local organization "Hope for Life", d.b.a. Hope Pregnancy Center. They are located at 110 Main Street, Cheshire in a facility provided by Christ Community Church. They will gratefully accept infant clothing and unused nursery equipment. For further information, see the poster hung above the bassinet.

NEED TO GET INFORMATION TO CERTAIN MEMBERS OF OUR CONGREGATION?

Just slip your information or a note into one of the folders on the hallway table outside the church office. Folders have been created for each of the council members, Beth Soulier (the editor of this newsletter) and a few others and placed outside the office. We have found that this is a great way to distribute information within the congregation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSONS FOR OCTOBER 2015...

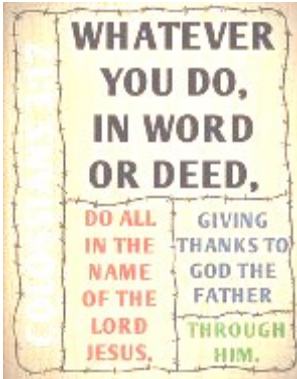

October 4: The Israelites Worship a Golden Calf

Somehow, as adults today, we still replace the presence and power of almighty God with pitiful substitute gods destined to both disappoint and destroy. Rather than drinking from God's endless spring of satisfying Living Water, we dig cracked, leaky holding tanks to collect stagnant water (Jeremiah 2:13). We chase false gods and buy into the lies of the ungratifying secular culture around us.

Bible Point: Only God deserves our worship.

Key Verse: Exodus 20:2-3

October 11: The Israelites Build the Tabernacle

Too often adults see people flourishing in ministry and beat themselves up because they feel they can't serve God in the same way. But they don't have to! God equips each of us with different skills, and one person's ministry will not be the same as another's. Many skills are required to build the kingdom of God. All we have to do is be willing to offer what we have!

Bible Point: We all can serve God.

Key Verse: Colossians 3:17

October 18: Moses Sends Spies Into the Promised Land

How acceptable is it to be "politically incorrect"? How comfortable are we being honest when those around us have completely different viewpoints and they ask us our opinions? Peer pressure is not just an issue for kids these days; peer pressure is all around adults. It's not popular to take a bold stand for God.

Bible Point: Be brave for God.

Key Verse: 1 Corinthians 15:58

October 25: Balaam's Donkey Talks

It's good to take occasional inventory—a checkup, if you will—of how we're doing in areas of spiritual growth. One important aspect of that is to check and see that we are open to God's leading. Are we receptive to hearing God's voice when he speaks to us? Are we even paying attention enough for him to speak to us? Are we open to seeing God's power at work around us?

Bible Point: Pay attention to God.

Key Verse: Psalm 66:5

CLC HELPING HANDS...

If you are in need of help please call on our Helping Hands committee. Please call Christine Smith (203) 250-7323 and she will arrange for meals to be made and delivered to you by our committee. You can also email her at christinels@hotmail.com

Whether this need is the result of a hospital stay, a new baby arrival, or a recent loss of a loved one, we want to support you during your critical time.

If you would like to volunteer as a member of the helping hands committee by making a meal for someone who is in need, please call Christine Smith so that we may call upon you when the need for your assistance arises.

Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. -- Galatians 6:10

CALLING ALL MEN...

Have you been searching for an opportunity to deepen your faith in God and strengthen your relationship with fellow Christians? Join us for an hour of Bible study, fellowship and prayer once a month. We meet at 7:30am and finish promptly at 8:30am the third Thursday of every month.

THE REFORMATION: QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS...

By Dr. Norman Nagel, professor emeritus, Concordia Seminary, St. Louis

1. Why is the Reformation important for us today?

A: A Christian cannot live a single day without the forgiveness of sins.

2. Is there reason still to be Lutheran?

A: The Lutheran tradition points only to Christ for our salvation, free and complete.

3. What hallmarks should we keep in mind when celebrating the Lutheran Reformation?

A: We are nothing but given to, that is, by grace and by faith. Grace alone, faith alone, Scripture alone — all mean by Christ alone. There is no other Christ than the one Scripture gives us, which is the instrument of the Holy Spirit for bestowing the gifts of life and salvation. Jesus said, “The words that I have spoken to you are Spirit and they are life” (John 6:63 ESV). That centers everything in Jesus, in and from Jesus. At the heart of our celebration is extolling Jesus — proclaiming and praising Him, for which our tradition supplies us with bountiful resources in liturgy and hymns. “One generation shall commend Your works to another, and shall declare Your mighty acts” (Psalm 145:4 ESV).

4. What cautions should be observed in celebrating the anniversary of the Reformation?

A: In celebrating the Reformation we should be cautious not speak scornfully of any other Christians who look only to Christ for their salvation and not to themselves.
